

Austin American-Statesman

February 7, 2008

Deal of The Week

MetCenter to get its seventh hotel

What: Zydeco Development has sold a section of MetCenter for the construction of another hotel. Zydeco says the hotel is expected to be a Wingate by Wyndham.

Where: At Texas 71 and U.S. 183 near Austin-Bergstrom International Airport.

Who: Gay Ruggiano of the Kucera Co. represented the buyers of the site. The hotel will be the seventh at the mixed-use business development. "The addition of a seventh hotel at MetCenter speaks to the success of the business park and Austin's continued growth," said David Sheldon, a principal at Zydeco.

Details: MetCenter has a sports complex and hike-and-bike trails, with a disc golf course in development.